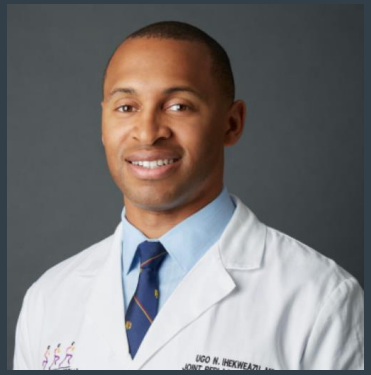
Anterior vs. Posterior Approach Primary and Revision THA

Benjamin McArthur, MD
Hip and Knee Reconstruction
Texas Orthopedics Sports and Rehabilitation Associates
A Division of OrthoLoneStar
Assistant Professor of Surgery and Perioperative Care
Dell Medical School at the University of Texas at Austin

Our Panelists



David P Brigati, MD

- Texas Healthcare Fort Worth Bone and Joint Clinic
- Residency: Cleveland Clinic
- Fellowship: UT Austin
- Current Practice:
  - 85% Primary
  - 50% DA
  - 30% Posterior
  - 20% Lateral

Ugo Ihekweazu, MD

- Fondren Orthopedic Group
- Texas Orthopedic Hospital
- Fellowship director: Fondren-Texas Orthopedic Hospital Adult Recon Program
- Adjunct Professor University of Houston College of Medicine
- Residency: Baylor College of Medicine
- Fellowship: Hospital for Special Surgery
- AO Trauma Fellowship: Geneva Switzerland
- Current Practice:
  - 80% Primary
    - 95% DA
  - 20% Revision
    - 90% Posterior

Brian P. Gladnick, MD

- W.B. Carrell Memorial Clinic
- Fellowship Director, Hip & Knee Center
- Residency: Hospital for Special Surgery
- Fellowship: OrthoCarolina
- Current Practice:
  - 90% Primary
    - 100% DA
  - 10% Revision
    - Almost 100% DA (rare exceptions)

Benjamin A. McArthur, MD

- Texas Orthopedics Sports and Rehabilitation Associates
- Assistant Professor of Surgery and Perioperative Care, Dell Medical School at the University of Texas at Austin
- Educational Experience Director Resident Arthroplasty Rotation
- Residency: Hospital for Special Surgery
- Fellowship: The Mayo Clinic
- Current Practice:
  - 70% Primary
    - 75% DA
    - 25% Posterior
  - 30% Revision
    - 95% Posterior

Disclaimer

- Not an all inclusive discussion
  - Superpath
  - Direct Superior
  - Direct Lateral
  - ABMS